BICYCLE SAFETY

Alberta law requires anyone under the age of 18 to wear a helmet while operating a bicycle or riding in a bicycle seat.

The Calgary Police Service recommends that everyone wear a helmet when engaged in activities such as cycling, skateboarding, rollerblading and the like. Parents are responsible for ensuring that anytime their children ride a bike, they are wearing a safety-approved cycling helmet that fits properly

Follow the rules of the road

Cyclists must follow the same rules as drivers while riding on roadways, including obeying all traffic signs and signals. Make sure that you and your children follow these rules:

- Children under 14 are allowed to ride their bikes on the sidewalk in Calgary, but all other cyclists must ride single file along with traffic on the right-hand side of the road.
- Use the proper hand signals so that other vehicles will know where you're going.
- Take extra caution near busy intersections and at the entrances of alleys and driveways.
- Red lights, stop signs and other traffic signs also apply to bicycles, so make sure that your children know what they mean.
- Pedestrians always have the right-of-way over bicycles, whether they're on the sidewalk, on a path or at an intersection.
- All bicycles are required by law to have a bell or horn to be used as a warning device: Always approach a pedestrian with caution and ring the bike's bell as a warning before passing.
- Bicycles should be in good working condition, with proper safety equipment such as lights and reflectors.

Enjoy Calgary's pathways

Calgary's pathways are open not only to cyclists, but are also for in-line skaters, pedestrians and runners — so it's important to share the paths with everyone.

- When entering a pathway, yield to users on the path, then move over and ride on the right.
- Pass on the left and use an audible signal, such as a bell or horn, as a warning. Obey all posted signs and markings.

SAFETY TIP

As we move towards warmer weather, the Calgary Police Service is asking the public to ensure that their residences and garages are secured at all times. This includes during the night when occupants are sleeping. Police have encountered calls for service where offenders have entered into residences through screened windows and patio doors without disturbing the sleeping occupants. Please ensure all points of entry are secure.
